Full job description

The Company

My client is a leading construction fitout company based in the Sydney Metro area. Known for their agile and dynamic approach to construction, they pride themselves on delivering high quality projects which exceed their client's expectations. They are focused on creating strong stakeholder relationships and offer a collaborative and supportive working environment for all of their employees.

The Position

Due to continuing growth my client is seeking an Estimator to join their team. Reporting to the Estimating Manager you will be responsible for providing quality estimations for commercial fitouts up to 15m. You will be able to tender on multiple projects simultaneously and create strong relationships with subcontractors, clients and consultants.

Requirements and Experience

- 2-5 years' experience estimating in the commercial sector
- Strong communication skills
- Ability to meet deadlines
- Commercially minded with good negotiation skills
- Analysis of past projects costs to develop estimating standards
